DISTRICT INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION & TRAINING MASUDA

After the independence the process of consistent development in the field of education has been continue. In order to improve the quality in education in 1957 the first training institute for in-service teachers had been established in the garh (fort) of Masuda in Ajmer.

In accordance with the National Education Committee the structure of training centers had been extended. In order to improve the quality in education a concept of District Institute of Education & Training (DIET) had been cherished. DIET Masuda begun in 1990 in the third phase of the DIET construction process in Rajasthan.

By foreseeing the requirements and expansion of work the new building of DIET was founded on 37.50 beegha land at Bandanwara Road Masuda in 1995 and after the completion of construction in 1997 the DIET was shifted to new building since then all the activities of DIET are being executed from the new building.

Geographical Location- Ajmer

Area - 8481 psqkm

Population (2010) - 2583052

Male - 1324085

Female - 1258967

Sex Ratio - 951 per thousand male

Literacy Rate - 69.33%

Location of DIET - In front of Police Station, Bandanwara Road

DIET Premises - 37.50 Beegha

In order to do properly the execution of the National Policy for Education 1986 the DIETs have been established on district level by the Govt, of Rajasthan for assuring education dynamic and qualitative.

- 1. To provide the trainings to the pre service and in-service teachers of school education.
- 2. To manage the continuous trainings for the instructors and supervisors of the formal and continuous education.
- 3. To manage the orientation programs for the head masters in order to construct school management planning.
- 4. To organize the Elementary Education Completion Certificate Examination in the district.
- 5. To do creative & innovative research and practical.
- 6. To play the role of evaluation center for elementary formal and continuous education.
- 7. To publish the educational research and developmental activities.