

Postgraduate Curriculum

First year

1. Practical & clinical skills. Attitudes communication skills.
2. Providing history, clinical finding on, receiving the patients and management of patients admitted indoors.
3. Demonstrate skill in giving peribulbar blocks, minor ophthalmic surgeries and diagnostics

Second year

1. Training in research methodology
2. Thesis approval
3. Demonstrate skills is performing ophthalmic surgeries under supervision
4. Rotatory residency program in various subspecialities.

Third year

1. Thesis completion and submission
2. Diagnose and manage majority of the Ophthalmic conditions on the basis of clinical assessment and appropriately selected and conducted investigations
3. Surgical skill demonstration in major ophthalmic surgeries

Weekly classes

Monday	: Journal club
Tuesday	: Case presentation
Wednesday	: Case presentation
Thursday	: Symposium
Friday	: Theory class by faculty member
Saturday	: Seminar